

Interviewed Mrs. Minnie Addison Clark of 134 Redmond Street, N.B., a member of the Church since childhood. She knew Eleanor very well and visited one another once a week. Eleanor is a very good girl and that she (Mrs. Clark) would have her limbs torn if she could condemn her. Last few years was very intimate with Eleanor. Mr. Hall was a boy in men's clothes, and Hall showed no partiality. Visited Eleanor quite a number of times and saw nothing wrong, and is willing to make an affidavit to this. Mrs. Mills operation took place on ^{January} September 16th, 1922. Also that on Saturday afternoon after the bodies were found Ed Carpenter wanted to get gowns and Mrs. Clark went with Carpenter to the Church to get the vestments from the hanger and after they had same he was taking them to Mr. Hubbard the undertaker. This took place in the afternoon about 3 to 5 P.M. Mr. Clark while this was going on remained at the Mills house, then Mrs. Opie came into the Mills house and Mrs. Clarke ~~was~~ at the church about 35 minutes, no papers taken. Mr. Clark at no time had any conversation about papers with Mrs. Opie.

At the Hopatcong trip were Mrs. Hall and Mr. Hall, Mrs. Mills, Mrs. Clark and Hall's mother, remained at the lake about two hours in bathing, then got to the lake about two o'clock and left about 4 P.M. Stopped at the farm that furnished milk for Childs and Hall tore pants at the place while they were having lunch. Mrs. Hall mended same with black thread. Returned to New Brunswick at about 9 P.M. They left old Mrs. Hall at the Bayard and took Mrs. Clark to her house. On the following day Mrs. Clark went to Mrs. Halls home. Mrs. Hall was in the kitchen canning pairs and Maria was with her. After dinner spoke of the Hopatcong trip. A Miss Marian Stokes 18 years of age, also there in her graduation dress. Maria was present and took part in a conversation about preserving. While Mrs. Clark was there Mr. Hall, ^{Mrs.} Francis Vorhees and Barbara Webb of College Avenue came in. Mr. Hall brought in a bottle of pickles and passed them around. My Country Tis of Thee and America was sung by Francis Vorhees and
